It is expected that the family, the troop, or the chartered organization will pay some part of the fee. Working together, no Occoneechee Scout will be denied the experience of summer camp because of financial hardship.

The Scout Law teaches that a Scout is Thrifty, and should learn to pay his own way. As such, the Occoneechee Council will only provide a maximum of $150 per Campership. The unit and the Scout must work together to raise the additional funds needed. The Scout and Unit portions of funds must be mailed in with this form.
